New CDC Stats on Drug Poisoning

The latest CDC statistics stated in 2014 that 47,000+ people in the United States died of drug poisoning. Almost 19,000 were due to opioid pain medications and 10,500+ were due to heroin. As I write in my book, “Saving the lives of those who are affected by this disease will only happen when the general public gets angry enough to demand that the people who suffer from these disorders deserve the same

2015-2016 Events

The publication of my book has resulted in several speaking engagements in 2015 and more yet to be scheduled for 2016. Please see my Events Tab. I invite you to check out my pod cast from the WOW Women's Book Fair at the Minneapolis Women's Club on my Speaking Tab.

Peace and Blessings to each one of you as you greet the New Year!
With Deep Gratitude,

Gloria
