Policy Sheet for Grief Recovery Support Group

Your fee for six - 90 minute group coaching sessions is $150.00 and is due 48 hours previous to our first scheduled meeting via PayPal on my website @ <http://recoveringu.com/grief-recovery-support/> It is the first fee listed at the bottom of the page under “Grief Recovery Support Groups.” Although it’s a PayPal center you do not have to have a PayPal account or create one. You may use any credit card. Just keep saying you don’t want to create or use a PayPal account (unless you want to) and you will be taken to a page to enter your credit card number etc.

A twenty-four hour advance notice of a group session is requested if you cannot attend. The best way to do this is to call my office and leave a message @ 612-866-1056. If you cannot reach me there please call my cell: 612-749-4006. I do understand that sometimes this may not be possible as with an unplanned illness or personal emergency. If you do miss a session, your session will be rescheduled in one of two ways:

- 1) You will be able to attend one session of the next six-week group at no extra charge.
- 2) Or, you may have a 30 minutes personal session with me via the phone.

As your facilitator it is my belief that each client is resourceful, creative, capable and self-responsible. Therefore, it is my policy to ask clients to agree to a “hold harmless clause.” That is, as a client you agree to accept total responsibility for the outcome of any decisions or actions taken on the basis of your relationship with me as well as other group members. Grief Support Groups, while they may have psychological benefits, should not to be construed as psychotherapy, but rather as a resource for self-examination and peer support.
